No. HF/O/MERT/323/SS-239/2006

Dated: Kolkata, the 4th April 2007

From: The Special Secretary to the Government of West Bengal.

To: 1. The Director of Medical Education, West Bengal.
2. The Director of Health Services, West Bengal.

MEMORANDUM

In modification of this department memorandum number HF/O/MERT/742/SS-239/2006, Dated: Kolkata, the 6th July 2006, the undersigned is directed to convey the approval of this State Government to the following procedures in respect of postgraduate degree / diploma and postdoctoral students:

1. That candidates selected and admitted in a:
 - a. Superspeciality seat will be required to sign a bond for completion of tenure of the course failing which he / she will be required to pay a sum of Rs 200,000/- (Rupees two lakhs) only to the concerned admitting institution.
 - b. Postgraduate degree seat will be required to sign a similar bond for completion of tenure of the course failing which he / she will be required to pay a sum of Rs 100,000/- (Rupees one Lakh) only to the concerned admitting institution.
 - c. Postgraduate diploma seat will be required to sign a similar bond for completion of tenure of the course failing which he / she will be required to pay a sum of Rs 50,000/- (Rupees fifty thousand) only to the concerned admitting institution.
2. All postgraduate degree / diploma and postdoctoral students will execute and submit the bonds in non-judicial stamp paper of Rs 10/- for such sum, as mentioned in paragraph – 1 above, to the office of the respective heads of the medical teaching institutions in which they have been admitted within four weeks of admission positively.
3. The admitted students are to deposit the original MBBS / BDS certificates or the final MBBS /BDS mark sheets in case the original MBBS /BDS certificates are not available and the original registration certificates from the concerned Medical / Dental councils (if not available then the provisional registration certificates may be submitted).
4. All the above documents are to be deposited and kept in the custody of the admitting medical teaching institutions, instead of the WBUHS, against which the concerned Principal / Director will issue a certificate to the candidate indicating therein the details of the documents kept in the institutional custody.
5. All the aforesaid documents are to be deposited at the time of admission to the respective admitting institution. However, if a candidate desires to attend any re-counseling session (in this State or in any other State) and in that case all the deposited documents are to be handed back to the candidate under proper receipt and on the basis of an undertaking that failure to re-deposit such documents within a fortnight will render his / her admission against that particular course and particular college, cancelled without any further intimation.

On the event a candidate had already deposited all his / her original documents in another medical college in some other state through the AIQ or otherwise, in such cases the concerned students will be admitted provisionally on the basis of an undertaking that he / she shall resign from the course of studies where admitted previously in any other state, and deposit all the aforesaid documents in original before the next phase of counseling or within a period of 6 weeks, whichever is later, failing which the admission shall automatically stand cancelled and such vacancy would be allotted to another candidate through subsequent counseling.

If any candidate resigns from any postgraduate degree / diploma or postdoctoral course in which he / she has been admitted, after two weeks of the last date of admission (as stipulated by the MCI for the year), then his original documents would not be returned unless and until the candidate pays the penalty, as stipulated in paragraph 1 of this memorandum.

The above principles shall also apply for All India quota and SSKM Trust quota candidates.
